MONTHLY MESSAGE from the PASTOR

*See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.
Isaiah 43:19*

Hello, beloved. Change and transitions happen in our lives. While in seminary, I heard a word that I had no clue of what it meant. I had to look it up and to sit with it for complete understanding. The word is "liminal," and is defined as "relating to a transitional process." Think of it in terms of the lives of butterflies. As caterpillars, their only job is to eat and eat and eat. Then eventually they are drawn to a time of transformation before becoming butterflies. This time of metamorphosis happens in what we call a chrysalis, and it is for a liminal time.

Faith by its nature is life-changing and transformational. What exactly is happening in this liminal time? Not all transitional time is part of a dramatic transformation. Sometimes liminal space is just that, it is space. It is a time in between, and it can be a time of waiting and anxiousness. Often when we are in a period of transition, we want to get out of it quickly and get on to what is next. However, what if we were to let God do God's thing in these liminal spaces of our lives? It is in these spaces that we see God meeting us right where we are; but if we rush through them, we might just miss God. Trust His timing!

I believe that November is a liminal time of year. A transitional period between Halloween and Christmas. We tend to see a change on November 1st, when people begin to swap pumpkins with greenery. When people put away the Halloween costumes for matching pjs, sweet treats are replaced with gingerbread cookies or candy canes for candy corn. I am not saying it is not okay for us to put up Christmas decorations in November, because I love them so much and will do it myself; but I believe that if we rush through it too quickly, we might miss the liminal time of November.

November is a liminal space that we should be aware of and that we should claim as a time to intentionally give thanks. In November we remember those precious saints who have gone before us. We pause to give thanks to all the brave women and men who have served in the armed forces; and most important, we give thanks for all that God has provided. Beloved, November is a time of transition. We can rush through it, or we can pause and claim the liminal space. We can use this transitory time to give thanks to God for who God is and what God has done. This November, may we join, together in love, patience, and Thanksgiving.

Please remember that our church's missions & operational expenses require your support! You can mail in your donations anytime to the church at MUMC PO Box 144, Marshall, VA 20116; or simply leave gifts in the offering plate at services.

Thanksgiving Bags of Food - November 22 & 23, 2024

Once again this year we are joining with Grace Episcopal Church and a few others to collect and distribute food supplies to our neighbors experiencing issues. This will be our third year helping, and it is always a blessing to all involved. This year we are being asked to collect:

- 100 jars of spaghetti sauce
- 100 boxes of spaghetti or pasta
- 100 boxes of JELLO

There will be a box at church to gather the items we collect, and there will be items stored in the corner of Fellowship Hall during that week; please be gracious in allowing this minor inconvenience for a few days. Monetary donations can also be made to Peas and Grace Thanksgiving as the memo on your check.

Our packing day will be November 22nd from 1-3pm in the Fellowship Hall at church. On the 23rd, we will meet again at 9am - 11am to distribute bags to those who have signed up. It will take many helpers to keep things moving smoothly, so I pray many of you can stop in for 30 or 60 minutes to help on either day. The opportunity to help is just a click away on the link on "Sign Up Genius."

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0549ABA92DA31-51830304-thanksgiving>

There will be registrations available at church for anyone interested in receiving a Thanksgiving Bag on the 23rd. On that same day, Potter's House will be offering items from their supply of clothes and small appliances in our mini-hall.

If you can help or have any questions, please contact Terri Hill (540-270-3068).

Book Buddies

The MUMC Book Group has a lot on the books!

November's read is The Word is Murder by Anthony Horowitz with gathering and discussion to follow on the 14th at 6:30pm at the Machamers.

The December read will be The Christmas Train by David Baldacci.

A new club president comes in January along with another book, You Never Forget Your First by Alexis Coe; this is an enjoyable non-fiction biography about George Washington.

In February, the group enters The North Woods, historical fiction by Daniel Mason.

In March, they will reach for the classic Howard's End by E. M. Forester.

Pulitzer Prize winning fiction, Empire Falls, by Richard Russo will be read in April.

A science fiction title is to be determined for May.

The book group generally meets on the second Thursdays of each month. Contact Debbie Machamer for more info!

Helpful Hearts

Over the Holidays

Besides much love and joy, this time of year can bring to the surface for some their needs or sorrows. Support those around you who are struggling with your thoughts and kindnesses; find opportunities to give, volunteer, and share your blessings like at our Thanksgiving drive or by helping with our annual ANGEL TREE which will be going up on Saturday, November 30th. Your generosity is appreciated.
